Sponsor Responsibilities

Acquaint applicant with the general membership by inviting them to participate in club races, work parties, and social events prior to being eligible to apply for membership. Three different event types are required to occur in a calendar year and one must be a sailing event. PMYC maintains a membership list. All applications are accepted on a first come basis.

Confirm applicant is an Active Sailor by learning sailing history, interests, and future plans to race, cruise or day sail.

Discuss how applicant will be requested by club officers and committee heads in the running of the club (beyond the minimum work party credits) and attest the applicant is an Active Sailor and Volunteer as defined below.

Review club benefits, dues, regulations, responsibilities, and limited availability of moorage.

Submit a complete legible application. Pennmanship counts!

Definitions

Active Sailor – Applicant sails regularly at the time of this application and intends to be one in the future.

Active Volunteer – Applicant understands PMYC is a small volunteer yacht club and participating on standing committees, event planning etc. in addition to the minimum two annual work parties is the way PMYC keeps dues low and maintain it's Do-It-Yourself spirit. If they are granted membership they must participate on a Standing Committee in their first year of membership to help meet other members and help run the club.

Active Member Endorsement – An active member that has met and interacted with the applicant during one of three Required Club Events.

Required Club Event – Event sponsored by Port Madison Yacht Club listed on the club's online event calendar falling under three types; Sailing, Work Party, and Social.

Application Submission & Interview Process

New member applications should be submitted by the Sponsoring Member to the membership committee via email to membership@portmadisonyc.org and must be signed by one sponsor and four endorsers, all of whom are active members in good standing. The original copy must be submitted at the membership interview.

The membership committee will confirm receipt of application via email and propose mutually agreeable dates to meet for an interview between the membership committee, sponsoring member, and applicant.

The membership committee will make its recommendation to the board. If, in the board's judgment, the club can support new members, the board will take action on the application.
